

Gottstein Trust Fellowship Projects' Update March 2023

Recipient	Project	Milestones
Paolo Lavisci	Overseas Experiences in Resilient Timber Construction	2023: Report due December 2022: Project underway November
Amanda Bell	Identifying opportunities for improvement in safety capability and leadership in the Australian forest industry	2023: Report submitted February 2022: Travelled to New Zealand
Jon Lambert	Reconnaissance of Forest and Timber Discovery Centres	2023: Report due August 2022: Project underway
Mr Jason Ross	Exploring the relationship between forestry science, sustainable forest management principles and the perceptions of local forestry amongst Australian audiences.	2023: Report due 31 st March 2022: Project underway
Mr Evan Dunstone	The Swedish Approach To Value-Adding Forest Products Through Design and Craftsmanship	2023: Report submitted February 2022: Overseas study tour complete 2020: Pandemic delayed commencement
Mr Laurence Ritchie	Learning from experience: A thorough review of lessons learnt and future directions for EWP construction systems in Northern America	2023: Report due February 2022: Overseas study tour completion 2020: Pandemic delayed commencement
Mr Marcus Strang	Pathways to net-zero energy for engineered wood multi-storey buildings in Australian tropical and sub-tropical climates	2023: Anticipated project travel 2022: Time extension granted 2020: Pandemic delayed commencement
Dr William Woodgate	Solar Induced Fluorescence (SIF) - assessing a new means to measure dynamic forest productivity over large areas (in reference to plantation/forest management innovations to achieve multiple objectives)	2023: Time extension granted 2019/20: Field site was bushfire impacted; request for an extension was granted. 2019: Overseas study tour completed.